Our Organization

The National Association of State EMS Officials (NASEMSO) is the lead national organization for emergency medical services, a respected voice for national EMS policy with comprehensive concern and commitment for the development of effective, integrated, community-based, universal and consistent EMS systems. We are the only organization in the country that is comprised of state-level EMS directors, medical directors, and program managers in data, personnel licensure, health and medical preparedness, trauma systems, and pediatric emergency care. Our members are experienced professionals who stay abreast of cutting-edge health technology and medical science to ensure the very best in prehospital care.

Covering a full range of disciplines involved in system development and care delivery, NASEMSO members are responsible for state level policy-making, EMS program management, and grant administration that augments EMS equipment and service needs at the local, regional, and statewide levels.

Please visit our web site at www.nasemso.org

Responsibilities of the state lead agency for EMS can include:

- Write regulatory language and protocols related to the provision of emergency medical services in the state
- Approve prehospital skills and devices that are permitted under state laws
- License EMS practitioners
- Determine what training/continuing education must take place for EMS practitioners to function in the field
- Distribute federal and state grant funding to communities and EMS agencies
- Determine approved equipment lists
- License ambulances and EMS agencies
- Provide information when multiple manufacturers offer similar products
- Collect patient data that supports EMS research and practice
- Work with institutional review boards to facilitate product trials
- Approve EMS research projects
- Limit and/or prohibit the use of specific devices and products when a product is determined to be insufficient to meet the standard of care in a particular state
- Counsel or discipline an EMS practitioner when they use a device that is not permitted or misuse a product for which it is not intended

NASEMSO members are regulators and their primary responsibility is to “protect the public.” They implement state and national policy changes that determine what EMS practitioners can and cannot do in the field. It is important for them to understand why your product or service is in the best interest of EMS and patient care!

Description of NASEMSO Councils

Data Managers Council

Formulates recommendations on policies and positions specific to EMS data systems. This Council serves as a national leader in developing and maintaining a fully-integrated and functioning National EMS Information System (NEMSIS) in all states and territories.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/data-managers/

EMS Education Council

Serves as a resource for state EMS officials that are tasked to implement the consensus-based approach to EMS education described in the EMS Education Agenda for the Future: A Systems Approach and its components.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/education/

Health and Medical Preparedness Council

Formulates policies and resources to assist states to provide a coordinated EMS response to incidents that impact public health. Provides technical assistance for and representation of state EMS officials regarding both natural as well as terrorist type incidents, to include emerging infectious disease outbreaks, as they relate to planning, preparedness, response and recovery, to include homeland security activities.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/health-medical-preparedness/

Medical Directors Council

Composed of state EMS medical directors, this Council provides medical expertise and leadership to NASEMSO and formulates recommendations to the NASEMSO Board on policies and positions in support of the mission of NASEMSO.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/medical-directors/

NASEMSO Councils meet regularly by teleconference and in-person at the Annual Meeting.

Councils are standing bodies that contain one representative from each member state or territory.

Pediatric Emergency Care Council

Formulates recommendations on policies and positions specific to emergency medical services for children and other pediatric system challenges. This Council maintains a vision to improve health outcomes for children by promoting an emergency medical care system that addresses the unique needs of children.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/pediatric-emergency-care/

Personnel Licensure Council

Formulates recommendations on policies and positions specific to EMS licensure, credentialing, and certification matters.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/personnel-licensure/

Trauma Managers Council

Formulates recommendations on policies and positions specific to statewide trauma systems to ensure universal access to high-quality trauma care in all states and territories.

Learn more at nasemso.org/councils/trauma-managers/

Description of NASEMSO Committees

NASEMSO Committees meet regularly by teleconference and in-person at the Annual Meeting.

Committees can include NASEMSO members and partner organizations. They may address short-term or long-term issues.

Air Medical

Discusses issues surrounding air EMS treatment and transport. Committee members include state directors and regulators, air ambulance providers, and others interested in recognizing the essential role and unique challenges encountered by air transport services.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/air-medical/

Agency and Vehicle Licensure

Helps industry professionals and state EMS office staff responsible for the oversight and regulation of agencies and vehicles stay current on ambulance design requirements and standard testing.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/agency-vehicle-licensure/

Community Paramedicine

Supports state EMS office efforts to explore and develop, as appropriate, the emerging role of EMS in CP-MIH.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/community-paramedicine-mobile-integratedhealth/

Highway Incident and Transportation Systems

Engages NASEMSO on highway safety issues relevant to EMS. Collaborates with highway safety partners to promote their understanding of EMS and identify opportunities for cooperative efforts to reduce injuries and save lives.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/highway-incident-transportation-systems/

Opioid and Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Ad Hoc Committee

Shares EMS best practices in response to overdose patients. While EMS agencies have for decades administered life-saving naloxone to patients to reverse opioid overdoses, the dramatic increase in overdose deaths has necessitated developing approaches that go beyond reversing the overdose and provide opportunities and support for long term recovery. State Offices of EMS are increasingly developing strategies and programs to address this critical need.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/opioid-and-substanceuse-disorder-ad-hoc-committee/

Rural EMS

Focuses on the needs facing EMS systems in rural and frontier areas, such as inaccessibility, aging infrastructure, communication technology problems, and more.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/rural-ems/

Safe Transport of Children

Examines current resources and pursues research to develop specific and practical recommendations and promising practices for safely transporting children in ground ambulances.

Learn more at nasemso.org/committees/safe-transport-of-children

Specialty Systems of Care

The Specialty Systems of Care Committee discusses issues and shares state information resources involving system integration, coordination of assets, evidence that support practice/destination decisions, and special EMS education and competencies. The committee's priority focus is on systems of care for time sensitive emergencies where quantifiable evidence is already available, such as STEMI and stroke.
